PLANS FOR ACTIVE WORK

The First Meeting of the Republican County Committee Was Held Monday Afternoon.

The new republican county committee, recently appointed by the chairman under instructions from the county convention held in June, met Monday afternoon at the court house for the purpose of organization and an exchange of ideas in regard to campaign work to be taken up as soon as the primary election is held and the candidates on the republican ticket are fairly in the field. The meeting was attended by a majority of the committee, some of them traveling 40 to 60 miles to be present. The committee was organized by the election of Mons Mahlum as secretary and C. B. Rowley as treasurer. A motion was made and carried to create an executive committee of five to be composed of the chairman, secretary and treasurer and two members from the county, to be selected by the chair, and the committee as formed will be composed of N. H. Ingersoll, Mons Mahlum, C. B. Rowley, James Sorenson and P. A. Stendal. Very encouraging reports were received from different members of the committee from their locality and the general sentiment seemed to be that this was a republican year and the fact would be fully demonstrated when the votes were counted in November, from the national ticket down to the most insignificant county office in the gift of the people.

The committee arranged a plan for raising campaign funds to defray the necessary expenses and adjourned to the call of the chairman, which meeting will be held sometime in October.

Some Imporeant Questions Relating to

Labor Day Celebration

The Labor Day committees met last night to discuss matters pertaining to the big celebration next Monday. Most of the committees have their work well in hand and it is thought that the celebration will eclipse anything of the kind ever attempted in the city.

In the afternoon the ball game and the sports will be pulled off at Athletic park and it will be an afternoon of great enjoyment for all.

There will be some good speakers and it has been decided to erect a platform for this purpose on the corner of Fifth and Laurel streets.

All local marshals will meet at the Y. M. C. A. on Friday.

CHICKENS ARE PLENTIFUL

It is Thought that Hunting will be very Good this Year but Some Rain is Needed.

The hunting season for prairie chickens opens on Thursday and the average man with a gun and a dog is preparing for a crusade on this favorite bird of the field. The report is that chickens are quite plentiful this year, even more plentiful than they have been for many years past. The only drawback at present is the dry weather. Rain is needed badly on account of the important part which the hunting dogs take in the game. It is said that it is so dry in the fields at present the average dog could not stand it long to be out working real hard.

Deputy Game Warden Saunders states that he has had no trouble at all this year and he has yet to find a single person who has violated the law in this vicinity. He says that Sunday was the quietest day in this line he has experienced since he has been in office, especially as this has usually been a very busy day for a great many who insist that it don't make any difference whether they shoot a bird a few days before the opening of the season or not.

MURDERER

PAYS PENALTY

William Chounard Was Hanged this Morning at Walker for Murder of His Wife

FACED DEATH IN CALM MANNER

He Had Nothing to Say and it Did Not Take Long for the Officers to Act.

The execution of William Chounard, the convicted wife murderer of Cass Lake, was set for an early hour this morning and the body swung from the gallows into eternity as the punishment for taking the life of his young wife at Cass Lake on the night of Jan. 26 last.

Chounard spent a somewhat restless day, anxiously awaiting news from St. Paul as to the action of the state supreme court on his application of a stay in the execution proceedings.

When the news arrived that the court had decided not to interfere in the proceedings, Chounard appeared to be moved, yet held his usual composure.

Sheriff Hardy had as assistants on the scaffold, Gibson of Cass Lake, Riddle of Walker, Sheriffs Thorson of Pope county and Haugen of Aitkin.

The trap fell at 1:07 o'clock this morning and at 1:14 the physicians pronounced the murderer as dead. His neck was broken.

Chounard spent his last moments in his cell listening to the reading of the scriptures.

Fathers Murphy, of Bemidji, and Felix, of Pine Point, accompanied Chounard to the scaffold.

Drs. Wilcox, county coroner, and Hardin, of Onigum, pronounced death after the hanging.

The sheriffs here were Dreger of Hennepin county, Haugen of Aitkin county, Thorson of Pope, Linnihan of Red Lake, Bernick of Stearns, Fosberg of Marshall, Peterson of Norman, Anderson of Kittson and Deputy Sheriffs Jarmin of Red Lake, Brose of Beltrami, Kemmerer and Harris of Hubbard.

Chounard's crime was the murder of his wife at Cass Lake, Jan. 26 last. In a fit of jealousy, Chounard fired three shots at his wife, all of the shots taking effect.

The tragedy took place near midnight, after Chounard and his wife had returned from town. Chounard had been drinking heavily all day and the quarrel which resulted in the shooting began shortly after 11 o'clock.

The first shot struck the woman in the pit of the stomach and the other two took effect in her back as she was running to the door. Mrs. Chounard was taken to Duluth, where she died.

Chounard made no resistance to arrest and claimed as soon as he became sober that he was just shooting to scare his wife.

He was tried and convicted of murder in the first degree, the last week in April, and sentenced to death by hanging. His relatives applied to the board of pardons, but the board refused to interfere. Friday last a motion was made for a new trial. It was denied and appeal was made to the supreme court, which yesterday refused to interfere with the execution proceedings.

An argument for a stay of execution was heard in the chambers of Chief Justice Start of the supreme court at St. Paul yesterday.

The argument was made by L. H. Bailey, of Bemidji. Justices Brown and Lovely were also in attendance.

Mr. Bailey stated that he was not the attorney of record and did not appear in the case till the hearing before the pardon board. He had read and familiarized himself with the record.

His exceptions were largely taken on the charge of Judge Spooner, who presided at the trial. He contended that the charge was not explicit enough and that under it the jury believed that it must either convict of murder in the first degree or acquit the prisoner.

In his opinion, several parts of the court's charge was argumentative and tended to prejudice the case against the prisoner. The burden as to proof of drunkenness shifted when the facts were developed in that behalf by the state. The point, he said, was not clearly set out in the charge.

Mr. Bailey told of the environment of Cass Lake with respect to crime. Chounard had been drinking heavily all day, and, in his opinion, he could not have formed a premeditated design to take the life of his wife. He was aware of the unpopularity of the defense of drunkenness, but, such as it was, it must be considered in a case of this character.

Attorney General Donahower said that he had read the charge of Judge Spooner carefully and believed that it was a fair and clear exposition of the law in such cases.

Chief Justice Start, concluding, said that he felt the gravity of the situation, and would accord the points raised the greatest consideration.

Late yesterday afternoon the judges announced that they had decided to deny the application for a stay of execution.

Attorney Bailey who moved for the stay of execution acquainted the sister of the condemned man with the decision of the supreme court and she was prostrated with grief.

The court, in denying the application stated that there was no error sufficient to warrant a stay, in the charge of the judge, as disclosed by the record.

Yes, more so than any other Exposition ever held.

MURDERER PAYS PENALTY

William Chounard Was Hanged this Morning at Walker for Murder of His Wife

FACED DEATH IN CALM MANNER

He Had Nothing to Say and it Did Not Take Long for the Officers to Act.

The execution of William Chounard, the convicted wife murderer of Cass Lake, was set for an early hour this morning and the body swung from the gallows into eternity as the punishment for taking the life of his young wife at Cass Lake on the night of Jan. 26 last.

Chounard spent a somewhat restless day, anxiously awaiting news from St. Paul as to the action of the state supreme court on his application of a stay in the execution proceedings.

When the news arrived that the court had decided not to interfere in the proceedings, Chounard appeared to be moved, yet held his usual composure.

Sheriff Hardy had as assistants on the scaffold, Gibson of Cass Lake, Riddle of Walker, Sheriffs Thorson of Pope county and Haugen of Aitkin.

The trap fell at 1:07 o'clock this morning and at 1:14 the physicians pronounced the murderer as dead. His neck was broken.

Chounard spent his last moments in his cell listening to the reading of the scriptures.

Fathers Murphy, of Bemidji, and Felix, of Pine Point, accompanied Chounard to the scaffold.

Drs. Wilcox, county coroner, and Hardin, of Onigum, pronounced death after the hanging.

The sheriffs here were Dreger of Hennepin county, Haugen of Aitkin county, Thorson of Pope, Linnihan of Red Lake, Bernick of Stearns, Fosberg of Marshall, Peterson of Norman, Anderson of Kittson and Deputy Sheriffs Jarmin of Red Lake, Brose of Beltrami, Kemmerer and Harris of Hubbard.

Chounard's crime was the murder of his wife at Cass Lake, Jan. 26 last. In a fit of jealousy, Chounard fired three shots at his wife, all of the shots taking effect.

The tragedy took place near midnight, after Chounard and his wife had returned from town. Chounard had been drinking heavily all day and the quarrel which resulted in the shooting began shortly after 11 o'clock.

The first shot struck the woman in the pit of the stomach and the other two took effect in her back as she was running to the door. Mrs. Chounard was taken to Duluth, where she died.

Chounard made no resistance to arrest and claimed as soon as he became sober that he was just shooting to scare his wife.

He was tried and convicted of murder in the first degree, the last week in April, and sentenced to death by hanging. His relatives applied to the board of pardons, but the board refused to interfere. Friday last a motion was made for a new trial. It was denied and appeal was made to the supreme court, which yesterday refused to interfere with the execution proceedings.

An argument for a stay of execution was heard in the chambers of Chief Justice Start of the supreme court at St. Paul yesterday.

The argument was made by L. H. Bailey, of Bemidji. Justices Brown and Lovely were also in attendance.

Mr. Bailey stated that he was not the attorney of record and did not appear in the case till the hearing before the pardon board. He had read and familiarized himself with the record.

His exceptions were largely taken on the charge of Judge Spooner, who presided at the trial. He contended that the charge was not explicit enough and that under it the jury believed that it must either convict of murder in the first degree or acquit the prisoner.

In his opinion, several parts of the court's charge was argumentative and tended to prejudice the case against the prisoner. The burden as to proof of drunkenness shifted when the facts were developed in that behalf by the state. The point, he said, was not clearly set out in the charge.

Mr. Bailey told of the environment of Cass Lake with respect to crime. Chounard had been drinking heavily all day, and, in his opinion, he could not have formed a premeditated design to take the life of his wife. He was aware of the unpopularity of the defense of drunkenness, but, such as it was, it must be considered in a case of this character.

Attorney General Donahower said that he had read the charge of Judge Spooner carefully and believed that it was a fair and clear exposition of the law in such cases.

Chief Justice Start, concluding, said that he felt the gravity of the situation, and would accord the points raised the greatest consideration.

Late yesterday afternoon the judges announced that they had decided to deny the application for a stay of execution.

Attorney Bailey who moved for the stay of execution acquainted the sister of the condemned man with the decision of the supreme court and she was prostrated with grief.

The court, in denying the application stated that there was no error sufficient to warrant a stay, in the charge of the judge, as disclosed by the record.

Is the St. Louis Fair a real World's Fair?

Yes, more so than any other Exposition ever held.

Why?

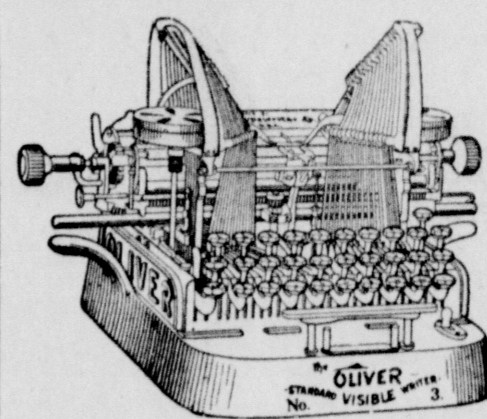

Because 50 different nations (to say nothing of 44 of our own States) will be represented; because the St. Louis Fair is twice as big and cost nearly three times as much as the Columbian Exposition; because it represents the latest triumphs of civilization.

About getting there?

FIRE DESTROYS A CITY

ONE HUNDRED FILIPINOS PERISH AT BINANG, ON THE ISLAND OF LUZON.

FIVE THOUSAND HOMELESS

PROPERTY LOSS IS ESTIMATED AT TWO HUNDRED THOUSAND DOLLARS.

Manila, Aug. 30.—The city of Binang, in Laguna province, island of Luzon, has been destroyed by fire. One hundred persons perished in the flames and 5,000 were rendered homeless. The loss is estimated at $200,000. The government is furnishing shelter and food to the people made destitute by the fire.

LYNCHING IN WYOMING.

Negro Taken From Jail and Hanged to a Lamp Post.

Laramie, Wyo., Aug. 30.—Joe Martin, colored, was lynched by a mob of 300 Monday night. Martin was a trusty in the county jail. He attacked a white girl named Krause in the jail kitchen and slashed her face and arms with a razor. One man was injured by Martin when entering the jail to drag off the prisoner.

After assaulting Miss Krause with a razor Martin was placed in a cell in the county jail. At night a mob of several hundred men went to the jail and at the muzzles of rifles took the cell keys from Sheriff Cook and took the negro to a lamp post a short distance from the jail. The negro was quickly strung up to the post.

During the entire proceeding he did not speak nor attempt to resist the mob. The lynching occurred at about 8 o'clock and within an hour the streets were deserted.

Acting Coroner Grant took charge of the body of the negro and turned it over to an undertaker.

Miss Krause, though not seriously hurt, would undoubtedly have been killed by Martin had not the wife of Sheriff Cook held him in her arms until his rage had cooled and until he could be taken from the kitchen. On the way out he slashed Frank Frazer, a bystander, with a butcher knife. The wound is not serious.

RUSSIFICATION OF FINLAND.

Indications Point to the Abandonment of That Policy.

St. Petersburg, Aug. 30.—The imperial decree convening the Finnish diet not only convokes it this year but makes provision for its meeting three years hence, thus foreshadowing regular meetings of the diet at intervals of not less than five years in accordance with the letter of the Finnish constitution for the first time since the grand duchy came under Russian sovereignty. That such a step has been taken possibly indicates the suspension of the policy of the Russification of Finland, to which the late Minister of the Interior Plehve was committed.
